

Brown Cullen, Jr., PGA - 2011

Brown Cullen, Jr. is a retired lifetime member of the Kentucky PGA Section. Cullen spent 30 years winning tournaments at the local, state and regional level, highlighted by winning the 1972 Kentucky Open Championship. He competed in seven PGA Professional National Championships and three Senior PGA Professional National Championships.

He served as the Head PGA Professional at Hunting Creek Country Club from 1964 to 1979 and went on to build a business, the Brown Cullen Company, as a sign-maker for golf courses.